Model U.N. Code of Conduct

1) All delegates must be respectful to their fellow delegates and chairs.

2) Foul language and inappropriate behavior absolutely will not be tolerated.

3) The chair of a council has the right to confiscate a delegate’s cell phone if it causes disruption. There is a one-time warning policy for electronic devices at the beginning of council.

4) Repeatedly disruptive delegates can and will be removed from their councils and returned to their faculty advisors for the remainder of the conference.

5) In the event of a severe disruption, the consequences of said disruption are at the discretion of the event’s Secretary General.

Approved by:
Secretary Generals
Model United Nations
International Relations Association
Appalachian State University